Grand Opening in Corona Del Mar

Design icon Barclay Butera celebrated the grand opening of his fourth showroom in spectacular Corona Del Mar California. The ultra-hip 1300 square foot showroom hosted their formal grand opening early December. The crisp white exterior and awnings along with Butera's signature blue on white decor is a phenomenal addition to this already popular shopping and entertainment area. The new showroom is reminiscent of Barclay's other gorgeous digs in West Hollywood, Newport Beach, and Park City Utah... but with a twist. This location has a stronger emphasis on retail and gift, all the while still offering complete design services that the Barclay Butera showrooms are so well known for.

"I am delighted to finally have a presence on this side of the Bay! For years I had hoped to expand my brand presence in this luxury area with clients possessing very discerning and good taste. I think we will thrive in Corona Del Mar and look forward to a long and prosperous partnership with the community" said Butera.

The overall vibe has a beachy-chic feel, with furniture, fabrics, carpets, lighting, art and more. Layers upon layers of candles, picture frames, pillows and other perfect holiday gift solutions abound. The new location is conveniently located at 2824 East Coast Highway and is sure to become a destination must see for Corona Del Mar residents, tourists, and neighboring communities alike.
