

TRADITIONAL HOME

July/August 2011

Special guide
DECORATING
SECRETS YOU CAN USE AT HOME

60+
ELEGANT ROOMS
FROM NEW TALENTS & OLD MASTERS

best of show house

GIVE A SOUTHERN TOUCH TO YOUR SUNDAY BRUNCH
DRESS UP OUTDOOR SPACES WITH COLOR, FABRIC & STYLE
TREND ALERT: NEW LOOKS FOR LEATHER (AND FAUX)

Pets
BY JANICE CURRIE

Dog days

COOL TIPS FOR HIGHTAILING IT INTO SUMMER
WITH YOUR CANINE COMPANIONS

"KoolCollar Cooling Dog Collar" keeps pets from overheating, from $15.50; Frontgate (frontgate.com). Dog Travel Bowl in leak-proof nylon folds flat for traveling, $15; L.L. Bean (lbean.com).

Balmy weather means outings to the beach or the park, vacation road trips, and lapping up rays by the pool or on the patio—and pets add to the fun. Keeping our four-legged friends looking stylish and feeling cool, comfortable, and stress-free is a snap with accessories ranging from cooling collars that help regulate body temperature and lounges that buffer hot surfaces, to a CD of classical music—dog-tested to calm even the most restless backseat pacer. ■

JONATHAN ADLER with Lillian Stahl, Madison Butler
& Mary Hynes

"Pet Lounger," $199; Frontgate (frontgate.com). "Plume" dog collar by Jonathan Adler, from $15; Lifeguard Press (lifeguardpress.com). Through a Dog's Ear: Travel Edition, $15 (throughadogsear.com).

Our designer says

They teach me every day to slow down, relax, and live life. . . . They are such a source of unconditional love. —Barclay Butera, of his dachshunds Ashton & Carson

"Unleashed," a vibrant nylon-cotton print of popular breeds from Eric Cohler for Lee Jofa (leejofa.com).

"Diamond Dogs," a pattern adapted from a 1950s print in linen-cotton from Schumacher (schumacher.com).

"Kingsley," a linen print with soil- and stain-release finish by Barclay Butera for Kravet (kravet.com).

“IT'S SUMMER—WHEN WE CAN MOSEY TO THE FARMER'S MARKET FOR GOODIES.”

—designer Melanie Elston, on shib-tsue Hannah & Bailey

Our designer says

They teach me every day to slow down, relax, and live life. . . . They are such a source of unconditional love. —Barclay Butera, of his dachshunds Ashton & Carson

"Kingsley," a linen print with soil- and stain-release finish by Barclay Butera for Kravet (kravet.com).